Based on comments from past attendees, preference will be given to non-commercial, application based topics, particularly those focused on better uses of available technology. Participants from industry, academia, government and research organizations are encouraged to present at this ASNT Conference. This will be an excellent opportunity for sharing your knowledge as well as gaining exposure in the nondestructive testing industry and community.

Abstract Submission

If you are interested in making a presentation, please submit a 250 word abstract online at asnt.org/events.

Abstract submission deadline is March 15, 2019

Speakers may submit an optional paper of the work being presented. Papers submitted in the proper format (template available on ANST.org) will be made available in the ASNT Digital Library. Instructions for submitting paper summaries will be provided with the acceptance letter.

Questions concerning the conference should be directed to the ASNT Conference Department at conferences@asnt.org or call Alicia LeMasters at 800-222-2786 or 614-274-6003, ext. 213.

Interested in Exhibiting?

There's no better way to reach the buyers and users of digital imaging equipment and services than to exhibit at the Digital Imaging and Ultrasonics for NDT Conference. Dedicated time has been built into the schedule to allow attendees the time to visit you. A limited number of table top exhibits are available. If you are interested in having a table top exhibit to share your latest products, technology, or service offerings, contact RUTH STAAT at RSTAAT@ASNT.ORG or call her at 800-222-2786, ext. 227 or 614-384-2427.

The AAA Four Diamond Award-winning Harrah's New Orleans hotel is located in the heart of the world's most exhilarating city, New Orleans, Louisiana! These luxurious New Orleans accommodations are just steps from the French Quarter and feature spectacular views of the Mississippi River and New Orleans skyline.

Often called the Crown Jewel of New Orleans, the French Quarter is one of New Orleans' most historic neighborhoods. From bustling nightspots, to award winning restaurants the French Quarter offer something for everyone. During the day there's a reimagined French Market, modern boutiques and artisan cocktails mix with beloved antique stores and old restaurants. Come dusk visit the fortunetellers on Jackson Square, ghost tours troop past mad Madame LaLaurie's mansion, and, of course, Bourbon Street.

Night falls. Horse hooves clop, music throbs and gaslights flicker in a place full of long-told legends and those waiting to be born...
